About Me

Hi, my name is Emmanouil Anezinis and i am an undergraduate student at Ionian University's Department of Informatics. The fields in which have spent the most time on are:

- Health Data Analytics
- Bioinformatics
- Decision Support Systems
- Statistics

Education

B.Sc. Informatics

Ionian University, Corfu GR

October 2015 - present

di.ionio.gr

Specilization in Information Systems.

Experience

Bartender

Royal Boutique Hotel, Corfu GR

2015 - 2017

During my working experience in this hotel i had great experiences regarding serving and communicating with clients, which in my opinion is considered as a pretty valuable lesson. I had impecable cooperation with my co-workers, a fact that made our working- time much more productive and easy-going.

A Little More About Me

Without considering Informatics, i got multiple other interests which are listed below:

- Tech Savvy
- Gaming
- Spear-fishing
- Coffee brewing
